

Airman & Family Readiness Center

"Taking care of you & your family"

The Airman and Family Readiness Center (A&FRC) assists all DoD ID card holders on a wide range of work, personal and family issues. The A&FRC helps support and maintain mission readiness by assisting individuals and families with adaptation to the challenges and demands of the military lifestyle. Information, education and resources are offered, as well as assessment counseling and referrals. Visit fairchildfamilysupport.org, fairchildfun.com or call 247-2246 for info and the latest class and events schedule.

Deployment support includes pre-deployment briefings (for member and/or spouse), PLAYpass (p. 5), Operation HomeFront events, Connections Forum (for spouses), Flat Daddy/Flat Mommy, Operation Pillowcase, Operation Book Reading, Hearts Apart Phone Calls, webcams, deployment calendars and literature, Pre-Deployment Briefings and more.

The Air Force Aid Society is the official charity for the Air Force and its programs are available to active-duty/activated AF members and their families – emergency financial assistance (retirees also eligible), Give Parents A Break, Car Care Because We Care, Childcare for PCS, Childcare for Volunteers, Bundles for Babies, Hap Arnold Education Grant.

Services and Resources Provided

- Air Force Aid Society
- Casualty Services (247-4488)
- Employment Assistance
- Exceptional Family Member Program (EFMP), information and referral
- Family Services such as loan closet, Airman's Attic and Operation Stork
- Information & Referral to on and off base resources and agencies
- Military Child Education/School Liaison Officer
- Military & Family Life Consultant (free counseling) (509-435-1992)
- Personal and Family Readiness for deployments, contingencies, and emergencies
- Personal and Work Life
- Personal Financial Readiness
- Relocation Assistance
- Survivor Benefit Program (247-4488)
- Transition Assistance
- Volunteer Resources
- Wounded Warrior